PREMIER ABERHART TO VISIT NORTH NEXT WEEK

Ex-Councillor of Vegreville Advises Constructing Main And Sewer All at One Time

If Grande Prairie puts in a water and sewer system, I hope a lot of the mistakes made by Vegreville and other towns will be avoided," said Mr. Shaw, who was visiting the city this Friday.

In discussing the proposed project with the Tribune reporter, further, Mr. Shaw, who served on the Vegreville council for some twelve years, during which he was chairman of the finance committee, said that on several different times, said that the first essential was to be assured of an ample supply of good water. Vegreville, he observed, made the serious and costly mistake of not making sure that it had plenty of good water. The result was that the town had to import water to be used for domestic purposes, bedded it costed the pipes.

"We started at the wrong end of things," said Mr. Shaw, "and the consequence was that instead of being able to use the system became a burden on the taxpayers. The water system may have had to be put out of commission, the system having practically no earning capacity."

After the water system was put in, another, after an exhaustive survey, which was very costly, ample water was found about a half mile out of town. Immediately many more houses were built in the area and it is hoped that in the near future the system will pay for itself."

Another essential, said Mr. Shaw, is that the right type of sewage plant be installed. "It has been our experience," he added, "that a disposal plant is not a good idea. It is better to build one that is sanitary, is costly in operation. In my personal judgment the town of Ponoka has the ideal design."

Reported from Vancouver, Mr. Shaw said that the town of Ponoka, the latter formerly of Lake Saskatchewan, are in charge of the northern exhibit at the Peace River and the Canada Pacific Exhibition is now in progress.

The Wheat King said that he would immediately wade into his harvest. He continued, "I am told the Peace River people who gave me a very attentive hearing, about the Peace River and the need of building the outlet and the highway to the coast, would be in touch with the editor of the newspaper who were looking for help from Vancouver, and the government."

The editor paid me the compliment of embodying the interview in an article which appeared yesterday. It is time for us to know that women are entering the fight for adequate transportation for the Peace River.

Grand Master Of I. O. O. F. Visits Grande Prairie

Members of Prairie City Lodge, No. 10, I.O.O.F., were paid an official visit by Grand Master G. L. Moore, Lodge of Alberta, Bro. T. M. McDonald, and Bro. J. E. McCallum, on Tuesday evening, at their regular meeting on Tuesday evening.

Mr. McCallum's first visit to the Peace River country and he surely was delighted to see such wonderful surroundings and hoped that all would be safely garnered before his departure.

Mr. McCallum said that people in the Peace River country were very thankful for, and he told of the crop failure in the southern part of the province. "In some parts," he said, "we could not even see a green blade of grass."

After business of the lodges, the members adjourned to the Royal Palace Cafe and enjoyed a splendid lunch, after which the Grand Master returned to the train, bound for Fairview, where he will meet the brethren in that district.

He plans to return to Spirit River Tuesday next and attend a meeting of the editor paid me the compliment of embodying the interview in an article which appeared yesterday. It is time for us to know that women are entering the fight for adequate transportation for the Peace River.

Local M.L.A. Sees Bright Future For Home Industries

Having just finished installing the completed electrical equipment and electrical wiring, we are pleased to prepare the new Capitol Theatre in Grande Prairie for sound pictures. The new theatre will be open to the public on September 12, and we are anxious that they have formed a permanent business for electrical wiring and repairs.

Mr. Shaw, who owns and operates a large grocery store at Vegreville, has a small grocery store and a few wear stores in Grande Prairie in referring to the crops in the Vegreville district, said that while they are not as bad as those in the Peace River, they were considered very satisfactory for this year.

Donald & Burgess Open Electrical Service Business

Having just finished installing the completed electrical equipment and electrical wiring, we are pleased to prepare the new Capitol Theatre in Grande Prairie for sound pictures.

Cecil Burgess, who has been engaged in the electrical business for a number of years, has formed a permanent business for electrical wiring and repairs.

The member for Grande Prairie feels that the most important thing in the new theatre for their shop, but intend to move into suitable store and office quarters when such locations are available.

The newly married couple will reside in Mr. Howard's house just immediately south of Dr. Game's office.

BEAUTY SHOPPE INSPECTED

We had the pleasure of inspecting Eleonora's Beauty Shoppe and were very pleased with the conditions which will be maintained in the contractions which is of the latest.

There is a complete dispensary, a custom-built machine with 30 choices which will do the trick at one sitting.

The Turbinator dryer is equipped with ready-made bags so the customer will be able to read while going through this operation.

A small Johnson tray which guarantees not to burn the face when getting this service. It so inclined, you can get a manicure and have your tinted almost any shade you desire.

Salon and the whole Shoppe is daintily set up, and the girls have been cut so short we would have been tempted to go through the whole procedure.

WEDDING DANCE WHEN HARVESTING IS DONE

Mr. George Cameron, manager of the hardware department of the Sexsmith Supplies, who married on Wednesday, Aug. 20, which is in another column of this paper, states that he will give a wedding dance in Sexsmith just as soon as harvesting is over. Watch for the date.

SAYS HE WILL BRING SOME BIG DEEP SEA FISH WITH HIM

A letter has been received from Gus Kirtstein from Boston, and he will be home in a few weeks. Gus states that he has just accepted a job which will bring back a few swordfish and several sharks, besides some of the many denizens of the ocean. These will be on exhibition in Sexsmith when they arrive.

SHOW DAYS CHANGED

After this week there will be a change in the days for the picture show at the Grand Theatre. Instead of showing Saturday and Monday as formerly,

3:30 p.m.—Holy Communion at Mount Star.
7:30 p.m.—Evening Prayer at Teepee Creek.
At North Sexsmith
2:30 p.m.—Sunday School, conducted by the Sunday School Caravan ladies.

Friday and Saturday will be the days both nights starting at 8:30. A good line of pictures have been procured, and the new program will be given in a later issue of this paper.

There will be a big dance September 11, after the show.

St. Alban's Church At N. Sexsmith Consecrated

Sunday, August 30, was a red letter day in the history of North Sexsmith. The highlight was the visit of the Bishop of the Diocese, the Reverend A. H. Soveral, M.A., D.D., to consecrate St. Alban's Church and the Rev. H. E. Wedd as rector of Sexsmith and his associated missions.

The Reverend Canon R. J. Pierce, Grand Prairie, and Rural Dean, who in spring conducted the first service in Athabasca and Slave Lake.

The enrollment this year will be the highest ever, and the new courses in primary and junior grades will be the first time for the worship and study of the Bible.

CUTTING WELL ADVANCED

Cutting is well on the way to completion, and this week we may see three thousand acres harvested.

The grain is taking nicely, and the heads are well filled, so far as I can see.

Expressing grateful thanks to God for the beginning of God being "in the beginning" of every life, and of expressing the need for God to be "in the beginning" of every life, and of expressing grateful thanks to God for all who, by their gifts or labor, had made possible the service of his message by speaking of the response both of the minister to his people and of his people to their minister.

One interesting feature of the service was when about twenty boys and girls gladly moved forward, at the bidding of the Bishop, and sat along the other side of the room in the pews for some adults who were standing in the porch. The boys and girls, many children and young people in the church speak well for its future.

Sexsmith and members of St. Alban's appreciated the visit shown by those who came from the neighbouring parishes of Grande Prairie and from the other congregations of this district.

Another new building has been erected for the men employees of farm buildings this summer. A new picket fence around his dwelling also is an improvement.

Some improvements as these are all to the good and speak well for the district.

On their way to Hythe for harvest were Cedar Watkins, Dave Clark, Irene Anderson and Alfred D. Dahl, all of Strength.

PREPARE FOR HUNTING SEASON

Several enthusiasts of the hunting pastime are reported to be in readiness for the opening of the season. Only a few birds have been seen as yet, but ducks are plentiful.

LOCAL NEWS

AN EASTERN VIEW OF OUR CRY FOR A RAILROAD AND SUCCESSION

"The railway facilities now available are quite adequate to meet the care of the district's needs. If the railway agitators for succession expect the railway to provide the country to provide this railway they expect too much."

Mr. Speake the Toronto Telegram, I know, speaks of the Telegram for these few kind words. I suppose the papers of the country haven't paid much attention to the railway, and the editor, etc., of the Eastern paper, I wish I could have had the writer and taken him to our N.A.R. and then over our "highway" to the mess Slave Lake and dropped him in head first. I think the cry for succession and the movement for highway to the coast. Too long have waited for such a broad-minded far-thinking people in the East. I wish the editor of this paper could print just what I would like to say to our eastern friends.

I suppose the papers of the country haven't paid much attention to the railway, and the editor, etc., of the Eastern paper, I wish I could have had the writer and taken him to our N.A.R. and then over our "highway" to the mess Slave Lake and dropped him in head first. I think the cry for succession and the movement for highway to the coast. Too long have waited for such a broad-minded far-thinking people in the East. I wish the editor of this paper could print just what I would like to say to our eastern friends.

GREENOCK PILOT COMES ABOARD

One step forward, one astir. Report of 12 midnight. All right. It was with the heat of this conversation between the pilot, who came aboard at Greenock, and one of the two crew, that we were sure that we must be in Scotland, and the time being 8 p.m., we knew that we had to await the tide for four hours.

Although a disappointment not to see the lower part of the river by daylight, the ensuing passage up the river provided many a spectacle. Huge cranes and shipways where big ships were in course of construction were close on each side. John & Company's yards, where the Queen Mary was built, could be seen through the darkness. Lights everywhere. Big ships, brilliantly lit up passing us. We docked at 2 a.m. Meadowside Grangary.

I am afraid our impression of Glasgow was not very favorable. It was pouring cats and dogs next morning when we taxied through the city to Queen Street station to catch the express for Edinburgh, 63 miles away, reached in 55 minutes.

We have words of praise for the customs officials at Glasgow, who apparently make a habit of not bothering tourists from Canada.

Edinburgh has been described as the most beautiful and the most historically interesting city in Great Britain. For the last twenty years we took a rubberneck tour from Waverley Street station and were able to see that these claims are very true. First, we took a walk down Princes Street, a very fitting welcome to Scotland. We stopped to see the flower clock that tells the time in Roman numerals, and, finally, on the side of the street, which he described as a rubber-neck tour, for after climbing up by the side of the road to Holyrood Palace, we took "Queen's Drive," took us over the hilly country known as the King's Park, and we were looking out on Edinburgh, Portobello, and the Firth of Forth.

A wonderful sight is Edinburgh Castle at night—floodlight. Equally wonderful are the many well-lighted, rose-cheeked nice-looking damsels.

If you want to get a good complexion without cost, come to Edinburgh, where the atmosphere is healthily invigorating, and the sunsets are superb. One of course cannot help taking an interest in nature and during our studies here we failed to see a woman of any age wearing makeup.

We had a very exceptional meal at a famous spot in Waverley Street for three "hot" (75 cents) apiece but economized by securing an excellent place for the night, bed and breakfast for 25 cents apiece and the children for 10 cents apiece.

THE WORLD'S FASTEST TRAIN We were up early next morning to walk about the city and a haircut. It was exciting to realize that at 100 m.p.h. we were traveling the world's fastest non-stop train, the Flying Scotsman. It had begun really rather an effort to know whether to travel on the electric trains or by the Queen of Scots.

The latter train stops at several places en route and takes about one hour. We took the electric-Pullman train with a cinema on board and radio headphones fitted to ease each of which are arranged so that you may have the additional comfort of a second engine and about 25 cents apiece and about 50 cents apiece extra in the dining car.

We were at Waverley Street station half hour ahead of time in order to inspect the rolling stock and engines. One of course naturally struck with admiration. Next time we were near London.

This has, as far as I am concerned, been the greatest day of my life. We took a train to Edinburgh at 10 a.m. from Cross station, which she informs us is to be placed at our disposal during our stay in Edinburgh.

Next week we will try to give you an impression of London and the changes since the war.

Grand Opening New Capitol Theatre

Modern Film House Brings Super Entertainment To Movie Patrons of District

cheduled to open this Thursday evening, Grande Prairie and the surrounding districts will witness the North's newest temple of entertainment, the new Capitol Theatre, to date to their needs.

The former Elks Hall has been entirely transformed into a brilliant auditorium, marked by elegantly panelled walls and a massive interior entirely panelled in padauk shades. Large windows overlooking with deep wine colored curtains the ornate arrangement of modern light fixtures are appropriately spaced along the walls to provide maximum light and minimum glare to please patrons in the new sloping floor, which is divided into sections for parties and groups, all present in the theatre.

Immediately to the left of the main entrance is a spacious lobby, where the ticket counter is comfortably furnished with a chesterfield, several armchairs and comfortable leather and wooden framed pictures of favorite stars.

Frank Donald, manager of the Capital and his son, Frank's efficient manager, who have spared no effort to bring to local and district theatregoers the best in motion picture studios during the past six years they have operated a theatre in Grande Prairie.

Before reaching Peterborough, I took the long, slow route via 109 center, very up-to-date season, very good harbor. We were then actually doing 119 m.p.h.

Although it is generally known that the train averages about 70 m.p.h., it is not considered wise to advertise the speed, as the speed in the straightest sections of 119, some people would be afraid to travel on her.

The principal reason why these trains (there are four of them daily) pay well is the fact that you can eat anything you want on the train, and there is no charge for the train.

If you don't feel like walking to the chromium-plated cocktail bar for a drink, you can get a free meal. At 119, it costs you $1.00 extra expense.

The same applies if you want a cup of coffee and a sandwich. And if you want to sit in the dining car, 25 cents apiece and half price for kids. There is a first and third class dining car, and the first class dining car to be a first class train ticket you pay a little more in the dining car for the same food, but you sit in a more comfortable chair.

FEW FACTS OF INTEREST The minimum train is twelve cars, it is usually found necessary to run 15 or 20. Seats must be reserved. No passengers beyond seating accommodations.

The dining cars have three or four settings for lunch. All cooking is done by electricity.

All the coaches of the train are so formed that the compartment windows are on the east side and the corridor on the west side, so that passengers may have an unobstructed view of the landscape, which is passed in Scotland and Northern Ireland.

The carriage are fitted with vita glass windows, permitting the healthiest air to circulate and to penetrate into the compartments.

Both third and first class compartments have arm chairs, and a separate smoking room, a private telephone system, which permits of the control by the passengers of either warm or cold air at will.

CONTRASTING SCENES IN STRICKEN DROUGHT AREA

These contrasting scenes in the midwestern farm belt suggest in graphic fashion the importance of water in the drought area. At the top is a cornfield which would normally have been about 40 bushels per acre, but where the drought has completely ruined the crop. On the farm of John Beery, near Kansas City, however, the proximity of the Little Blue River made it possible for Farmer Beery to fix up a home-made irrigation system pumping water from the river, which made possible the raising of a bumper crop, including such chaotic melons as Beery is shown gathering for market.

Cantonese soldiers, part of the army of general Chiang Kai Shek, show results of German training prior to the beginning of their southern advance into Hunan. This picture gives a glimpse of China's internal affairs and suggests an increasing antipathy towards Japan.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR LAYS CORNER-STONE

Hon. H. A. Bruce, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, declares the cornerstone of the new Ontario Stock Exchange "well and truly laid" as he takes part in the ceremony held in connection with the building of the Stock Exchange's new frame.

On a remote prairie of Prince Saskatchewan stands a tombstone which bears testimony of the love and regard shown for his dog, Gerald Spring Rice, brother of the late C. E. Spring Rice, one-time British Ambassador to the United States, settled in Saskatchewan. Two years ago, he had an old English house. He soon became a familiar figure in the district, and about a year ago his dog, Jerry, and became popular as a humanitarian. Jerry entertained many and in devotion to his memory Mr. Spring Rice erected a marble headstone over his grave. He died last fall, but two or three times since Mr. Spring Rice lost his life over seven years ago, the relations marking his pet's grave still stands. Above is a picture of the dog, who is a pup, owned by the present occupant of the farm, Maxes at the spot.

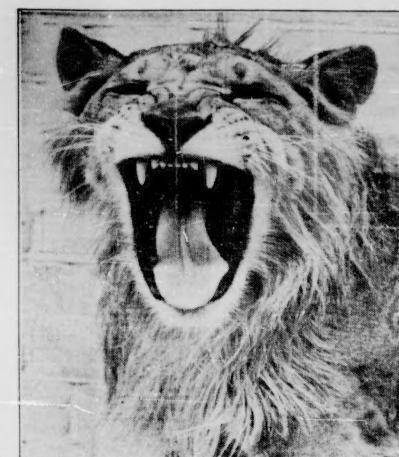

HEIRESS ON STAND

STAR INFILDER

John Krone of the Boston Red Sox has been knocking around the minor leagues for six years, but did not attract much notice until a year ago when he started with Syracuse. He started this season as utility infielder with the Red Sox, but has won the regular berth at shortstop and at the latest averages give him a mark of .422.

When the photographer paid an informal visit to the King of the Jungle, residing in the Zoological Gardens, London, Mr. Lion kindly consented to pose. The kingly beast was so gracious that he laughed out loud, when the photographer merely wanted a smile.

It will take a lot of "elbow grease" to clean this window, which is above the main entrance to Regina's new federal building. Measuring nine feet high (nearly three stories) and seven feet wide, it is one of the largest windows in Canada. The apparently insignificant coat of arms at the bottom of the window is actually five feet high and four and a half feet wide.

A charming picture of Miss Binnie Barnes, famous movie star, as Jane Penmore Cooper's widely read story. Miss Barnes plays the part of Alice Munro, daughter of the British colonel in command of colonial troops in America when George II was King of England.

Boards of Trade of the Peace River-Mayor Tooley conferred with Mr. J. K. Matteson, general manager of the timber judges committee, to determine the date and place of exhibit to the Vancouver's Exhibition at Hastings Park. It is thought likely the proposed exhibit will be held in October, and it is anticipated additional thousands of people will see the informative exhibit under charge of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sissoms.

The show has cost in the neighborhood of $1,700 up to this time.

As the guest of the Board of Trade, Mayor Tooley spent a pleasant afternoon cruising around Vancouver's harbor and up scenic Burrard Inlet. The old port city has a unique ceremony at Vancouver's new city hall, when the Lord Mayor unveils the statue of Captain Vancouver. With the exception of the Lord Mayor, he accepted the invitation to attend the civic banquet tendered the Lord Mayor by the Board of Trade on another dinner at the Chalet on the summit of Grouse Mountain. At the request of Margaret de Guiseuse, owner of the Hotel Hillside, Hotel Springs Hotel, Mayor Tooley spent Sunday night at this tourist resort.
